3.0 DEFINITIONS

Consultant means a person or entity that under an agreement, other than an employment agreement, provides expert or strategic advice and related services for consideration and decision-making. An individual or organization is considered a consultant if they provide the following services:

- Management Consulting (i.e. helping improve performance, primarily through the analysis of existing problems and development of plans for improvement. This includes organizational change management assistance and strategy development);
- Information Technology Consulting (i.e. advisory services that help clients assess different technology strategies, including aligning their technology strategy with their business or process strategy);
- Technical Consulting (i.e. strategic advice related to actuarial science, appraisal, community planning, employment/placement, engineering, health sciences, interior design, realty, social sciences);
- Policy Consulting (i.e. the provision of advisory services to provide policy options, analysis and evaluation);
- Communication Consulting (i.e. the provision of strategy and advice in conveying information through various channels and media)

Consulting Services is the provision of expertise or strategic advice that is presented for consideration, and decision making.
Non-Consulting Service Provider is an individual/company who contracts to provide services, other than consulting services to another individual or business. Examples may include “consultants” such as property brokers, head hunters or trainers.

(See Appendix A for examples of consulting services and non-consulting service providers and exemptions.)
