3.0 DEFINITIONS

Affirmative action means the development and implementation of positive measures with regard to all aspects of the employment of members of designated groups.

Designated groups Historically, designated groups refers to racial minorities, aboriginal peoples, women and persons with disabilities. For the purpose of this policy, persons who have experienced discrimination because of sexual orientation and socio-economic status are also included, as per the Board’s Equity Foundation policy.

Employment equity A program designated to remove systemic barriers to equality of outcomes in all aspects of employment and which leads to equitable representation of designated groups at all levels of employment.

Equality The achievement of equal status in society in terms of access to opportunities, support, rewards and economic and social power for all without regard to age, gender, race, class, culture, faith, citizenship, disability, ethnic origin, family status, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status or same sex partner.

Equity The provision of opportunities for equality for all by responding to the needs of individuals. Equity of treatment is not the same as equal treatment because it includes acknowledging historical and present systemic discrimination against identified groups and removing barriers, eliminating discrimination and remedying the impact of past discrimination.
