Bullying can occur in situations where there are real or perceived power imbalances between individuals or groups, and may be a symptom of racism, classism, homophobia, sexism, religious discrimination, ethnic discrimination or other forms of bias and discrimination. Bullying can also be based on, but not limited to, body size, appearance, abilities, or other real or perceived factors. Perceptions about differences are often based on stereotypes perpetuated in broader society.

Bullying, including cyber-bullying, may be intentional or unintentional, direct or indirect. It can take many forms including physical (for example, pushing, tripping), verbal (for example, name calling, insults, threats, sexist/racist/transphobic comments), social, also known as relational (for example, spreading rumours, intentionally excluding others, humiliating others with public gestures) and causing harm to one's property.

Bullying, including cyber-bullying, may intersect with other forms of sexual exploitation including, but not limited to, sextortion and the non-consensual sharing of intimate images. Traffickers and other sexual predators are increasingly using fake accounts to pose as acquaintances or friends of children and youth to lure, groom and recruit them into engaging in sexual acts or services. Children and youth who experience bullying are at increased risk for being sex trafficked.

5.0 APPLICATION AND SCOPE

This Procedure applies to all students and employees of the Board.

The Procedure also covers trustees, parents and guardians, occasional staff, volunteers, contractors and visitors.

6.0 PROCEDURES

6.1. Principles

- (a) Progressive discipline is a whole-school approach that utilizes a continuum of interventions, supports, and consequences to address inappropriate student behaviour and to build on strategies that promote positive behaviours.

When inappropriate behaviour occurs, disciplinary measures should be applied within a framework that shifts the focus from one that is solely punitive to one that is both corrective and supportive. Schools should utilize a range of interventions, supports, and consequences that include learning opportunities for reinforcing positive behaviour while helping students to make good choices.

- (b) Mitigating factors must be considered for all students prior to discipline. The following mitigating factors shall be taken into account:
- (i) The pupil does not have the ability to control his or her behaviour;
 - (ii) The pupil does not have the ability to understand the foreseeable consequences of his or her behaviour;
 - (iii) The pupil's continuing presence in the school does not create an unacceptable risk to the safety of any person.
- (c) Other factors must also be considered for all students prior to discipline. The following other factors shall be taken into account:
- (i) The pupil's history;
 - (ii) Whether a progressive discipline approach has been used with the pupil;
 - (iii) Whether the activity for which the pupil may be or is being suspended or expelled was related to any harassment of the pupil because of his or her race, ethnic origin, religion, disability, gender or sexual orientation, or to any other harassment;
 - (iv) How the suspension or expulsion would affect the pupil's on-going education;
 - (v) The age of the pupil;
 - (vi) When an Individual Education Plan has been developed for the pupil:

- (vii) Whether the behaviour was a manifestation of a disability identified in the pupil's IEP;
- (viii) Whether appropriate individualized accommodation has been provided;
- (ix) Whether the suspension or expulsion is likely to result in an aggravation or worsening of the pupil's behaviour or conduct.
- (d) In some circumstances, a short-term suspension may be a useful approach to assist in changing a student's behaviour. In the case of a serious incident, long-term suspension or expulsion, which is further along the continuum of progressive discipline, may be the response that is required.
- (e) For students with special education needs, interventions, supports, and consequences must be consistent with the student's strengths, needs, goals, and expectations contained in his or her Individual Education Plan (IEP).

6.2. Practices

School principals must:

- (a) develop and implement school-wide progressive discipline plans that consider the individual's needs and circumstances and that reflect Board policy and procedure;
- (b) develop a range of interventions, supports, and consequences including circumstances in which short-term suspension, long-term suspension, or expulsion may be the required response;
- (c) during the course of, and following an incident which had a negative impact on school climate school conduct an analysis to ensure that a plan is in place to address the negative impact and that the plan ensures supports are offered to any student involved in the incident whether they are the student that was harmed, the student who caused the harm or a bystander to the incident.
- (d) acknowledge historical trauma is intergenerational trauma experienced by oppressed groups, especially racialized groups, in particular, Indigenous and Black students and families that have and continue to be impacted by systemic oppression.
- (e) utilize trauma-informed approaches and healing engagement strategies in support of all students and families
- (f) implement the TDSB's mental health strategy so that all students involved in an incident which negatively influences a school's climate are provided an opportunity to receive mental health support.
- (g) use the most appropriate method to respond to a student's behaviour as outlined in this procedure and the school's progressive discipline plan;
- (h) understand that complaints related to Human Rights issues can be filed through the Racism, Bias, and Hate Portal as detailed in the Reporting and Responding to Racism and Hate Incidents Involving or Impacting Students in Schools Procedure (PR697) and in accordance with the Human Rights Policy (P031).

- (i) consider mitigating and other factors in accordance with Promoting a Positive School Climate (PR697) and use supports and interventions for students with special education needs that are consistent with the expectations in the student's Individual Education Plan;
- (j) develop a culturally responsive and relevant process for building on existing partnerships, or developing new partnerships, with community agencies and local police services that support students and their families;
- (k) provide culturally responsive and relevant opportunities for on-going dialogue with parents related to student achievement and behaviour;
- (l) provide culturally responsive and relevant opportunities for students to improve the school climate by assuming leadership roles (e.g., peer mediation, mentorship);
- (m) review the School's Code of Conduct to ensure that it is aligned with a progressive discipline approach;
- (n) establish a culturally responsive, relevant and supportive learning environment through appropriate interactions between all members of the school community;
- (o) communicate policies and procedures on progressive discipline to all students, parents, staff members and to all other members of the school community; information sharing will take into account ethno-linguistic and other diversities which exist in communities.
- (p) establish performance indicators for monitoring, reviewing, and evaluating the effectiveness of this and related procedures.
- (q) apply interventions which may include but are not limited to:
 - Discussion with a teacher, members of the support staff, settlement worker, staff from special education, vice-principal or principal
 - Supports offered by Urban Indigenous Education Centre and Centre of Excellence for Black Student Achievement

6.3 Retention of Caring and Safe School Incident Reporting Form Part 1, Violent Incident Form and Suspension and Expulsion documentation

In alignment with the Records and Information Management Policy (P097) and the corresponding Records and Information Management Procedure (PR667) the following retention timelines apply to all documentation related to the Caring and Safe School Incident Reporting Form Part 1, Violent Incident Form and suspension and expulsion documentation whether they are in hard or electronic copy.

In the TDSB the Caring and Safe School Incident Reporting Form Part 1, Violent Incident Form and suspension and expulsion documentation are recorded in two ways. The first way is a paper hard copy that is placed in a student’s Ontario School Record (OSR) and the second way is an electronic copy that is stored in the TDSB Incident Tracking Database.

The TDSB incident tracking database will notify the school Principal each time a Caring and Safe School Incident Reporting Form Part 1, Violent Incident Form and suspension and expulsion documentation are to be expunged. The school Principal will verify that the hard and electronic copies of the Caring and Safe School Incident Reporting Form Part 1, Violent Incident Form and suspension and expulsion documents are expunged in accordance with the retention timelines below and will send a letter to the family indicating that this expungement has occurred. The TDSB Incident tracking database will automatically expunge all electronic documents and will provide a letter for the family to the school Principal to be sent home.

Once notified to do so, the school principal will remove the paper hard copies of the Caring and Safe School Incident Reporting Form Part 1, Violent Incident Form and suspension and expulsion documentation found in the student’s OSR according to the retention timelines outlined below.

The electronic copies of the Caring and Safe School Incident Reporting Form Part 1, Violent Incident Form and suspension and expulsion documentation will be automatically (electronically) expunged according to the retention timelines found below. Please note that the electronic documents will no longer be accessible, neither viewable nor printable, against a student’s electronic records. The electronic documentation is, however, securely and confidentially stored by the TDSB. These electronic documents are stored for the sole purposes of research analysis which assists the TDSB in the development and implementation of the multi-year strategic plan.

Retention Schedule

Education Act Incidents	Caring and Safe Schools Incident Report form Part I	Violent Incident Form	Suspension Documentation	Expulsion Documentation
